

OPEN MEDICAL INSTITUTE

SALZBURG DUKE UNIVERSITY SEMINAR FAMILY MEDICINE

Sunday, March 29 – Saturday, April 4, 2020
Schloss Arenberg, Salzburg, Austria

Course Director: J. Lloyd Michener, MD

Co-Course Director: Kathryn Hoffmann, Assoc. Prof., PD, MD, MPH

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS:

Don W. Bradley, MD, MHS-CL

*Consulting Professor, Community and Family Medicine
Duke University School of Medicine
Durham, NC
USA*

- Workshop: Motivational Interviewing
- Methods of Quality Improvement
- Advanced Medical Homes/ Community Health Homes
- Leadership I: Planning and Coalition Building
- Practice Session I: Improving Outcomes in Diabetes

Roosevelt V. Campbell, MD, PhD

*Family Medicine Doctor
Duke Family Medicine Center
Durham, NC
USA*

- Workshop: Communication Skills: Breaking Bad News

Brian Halstater, MD

*Medical Director, Duke Student Health
Associate Professor, Department of Community and Family Medicine
Duke University School of Medicine
Durham, NC
USA*

- Workshop: Motivational Interviewing
- Informatics: EHRs & mHealth
- Practice Session I/ Improving Outcomes in Diabetes
- Leadership II: Teams

Kathryn Hoffmann, Assoc. Prof., PD, MD, MPH

Associate Professor

Department of General Practice and Family Medicine

Center for Public Health

Medical University of Vienna

Vienna

Austria

- Family Medicine in Europe
- Presentation Skills
- Fellows' Case Presentations

Viviana Martinez-Bianchi, MD, FAAFP

Fellow American Academy of Family Physicians

Assistant Professor, Associate Residency Program Director

Department of Community and Family Medicine

Durham, NC

USA

- Workshop: Communication Skills: Breaking Bad News
- Social Drivers of Health
- Leadership III: Implementation and Resistance
- Practice Session II/ Improving Outcomes/ Depression
- Leadership IV: Advocacy

J. Lloyd Michener, MD

Professor

Department of Community and Family Medicine

Duke University Medical Center

Durham, NC

USA

- Introductions, Pre-Seminar Test, Overview
- Health Outcomes: Finding and Analyzing Data
- Health Outcomes: Using Data Effectively
- Practice Session II/ Improving Outcomes/ Depression
- Primary Care: Responding to the Needs of our Countries

Sebastian Huter, MD

Paracelsus Medical University

Department of Family Medicine

Salzburg

Austria

- Fellows' Case Presentations

All Faculty

- Community Café: Topics of Concern