

Music for Medicine 2016

The annual Music for Medicine benefit took place on Wednesday, December 14, 2016, at Alice Tully Hall in New York City.

Members of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra performed Brahm's Piano Quintet.

(L-R Wilfried Hedenborg, Benjamin Morrison, Julian Hedenborg, Heinrich Koll, Bernhard Hedenborg)

(L-R Consul General Georg Heindl, Amb. Wolfgang Waldner, Secretary General Ban Ki Moon, Dr. Lloyd Michener, Dr. Joseph Tenenbaum, Dr. Stephen Ludwig, Dr. Mathias Bostrom, Dr. Wolfgang Aulitzky)

Secretary General Ban Ki Moon honored us with his presence and shared his thoughts on the importance of the work of the Open Medical Institute -

SPEECH

The recipients of the Austrian Cross of Merit awarded by Ambassador Wolfgang Waldner and Consul General Georg Heindl:

Dr. Mathias Bostrom (The Hospital for Special Surgery),
Dr. Stephen Ludwig (Children's Hospital of Philadelphia),
Dr. Lloyd Michener (Duke University Medical Center) and
Dr. Joseph Tenenbaum (Columbia University),

AAF Chairman Thomas McGrath welcomed the guests.

Dr. Wolfgang Aulitzky, Director of the Salzburg Medical Seminar Program, gave a short overview of our accomplishments to date.

Daisy Soros, Benefit Chair, introduced the musicians.

Mr. Andreas Grossbauer, Chairman of the Vienna Philharmonic spoke at the conclusion of the concert.

The Humes Visiting Professorship Award was bestowed on Dr. David Trost of Weill Cornell Medicine, who serves as course director of the Salzburg Weill Cornell Diagnostic Imaging Seminar, by Dean Emeritus Dr. Antonio Gotto.

The concert was followed by dinner and a live auction conducted by Peter Costanzo of Doyle New York.

WE RAISED A RECORD BREAKING $630,000

A HUGE THANK YOU TO ALL OUR SUPPORTERS

The full gallery of photos from the event may be found here.